Paragraph Worksheet for Writing & Speaking

Paragraphs are groups of sentences that have a single idea. A paragraph typically includes:

Structure of a paragraph

For example:

- Topic Sentence	→ Horses are farm animals.
- Supporting Sentences	→ They are usually black, grey, white or brown in colour.
	→ They like eating grass. They have long legs, which
	→ are very strong. They can easily run long distances.
	→ Horses have hard hooves which protect their feet.
	→ They carry people and goods from one place to another.
- Concluding Sentence	→ They are very useful animals.

- Topic Sentence: Write a sentence that states the main idea or topic of a paragraph.
- Supporting Sentence: Write facts or descriptions that relate to the topic.
- Concluding Sentence: Re-word the introduction to sum up the ideas in the paragraph to bring it to a close.

TOPIC: What are the main benefits of the Internet to society?

- Tip:
- Think of two benefits and two side effects.
 - Support your ideas with examples or personal experiences.
 - Summarize your ideas, and conclude whether it is good or bad.

Sample:

- Topic Sentence: The Internet is one of the most important technological innovations, but it is not without its flaws.
- Supporting Sentences: The biggest benefit is that it has helped connect people from around the globe. People can communicate on the Internet through various means like email, chatting, and voice and video conversation. Because of these innovations, people from different countries can talk to each other more easily. Also, through the Internet, people can get information easily. By simply typing a term into a search engine, we have access to a wide variety of information. We do not have to go to a library and read a book on what we need. However, this information can be inaccurate. Some information may not have been checked. One day, I used the Internet to do my history homework. I didn't get a good grade because it was not correct. Also, there are many offensive sites that can have a bad influence on children. Such sites are dangerous or even illegal.
- Concluding Sentence: While the Internet is not perfect, it is one of the most useful inventions ever made because of easier communication and widely available information.

Topic: What are the main benefits of the Internet to society?
