Paragraphs are groups of sentences that have a single idea. A paragraph typically includes:

Structure of a paragraph

For example:

- Topic Sentence	→ Doctors are great people.
- Supporting Sentences	→ Doctors are people who look after sick people and prescribe medicine so that the patients recover fast.
	→ Doctors' lives are very busy. They get up early in the morning and go to the hospital. They often work without taking a break. They study for a long time to save our lives.
- Concluding Sentence	→ Since doctors work so hard, we must realize their value.

- Topic Sentence: Write a sentence that states the main idea or topic of a paragraph.
- Supporting Sentence: Write facts or descriptions that relate to the topic.
- Concluding Sentence: Re-word the introduction to sum up the ideas in the paragraph to bring it to a close.

TOPIC: When did you feel something was unfair?

- Tip:
- When and where was it?
 - Why did it happen? Whose fault was it?
 - How did you deal with it?
 - Did you accept it or try to solve the situation?
 - Do you regret what you did?
 - What did you learn from the experience?

Sample:

- Topic Sentence: Last year, I got in trouble with my parents for going to an arcade with my younger brother.
- Supporting Sentences: I was with my younger brother at home. My parents were not at home and we both felt bored, so we went to an arcade, where we can play games. We spent about three hours there. When we came back, my parents had already arrived. They asked us where we went, and I told them we had gone to an arcade. My parents started to scold us, but my brother said it was my fault. They trusted him, so they told him to go to his room, and only scolded me. Later, my brother came to me and said sorry. I was a bit mad, but said it was fine. He gave me a robot that I wanted as a gift. I felt a lot better. I don't regret it, and I just go with it because I got what I wanted in the end.
- Concluding Sentence: I learned that sometimes bad situations can have unexpected good things.
