so it is obvious that they show different academic results. Some students may be able to apply their knowledge with only a little studying, but others might not understand the subject no matter how much the teacher explains it to them. Another point is that we should not let only students with good financial support go to university. There are many students who give up further education because of financial situations even if they have outstanding scores. University entrance should be simplified for all so that students with financial problems may have the opportunity to apply as well. I believe it is not fair of the university to accept students who only have good scores and financial support because through this action, they are disregarding the skills and economical difference that one is given since birth.

Another important reason is that if our society has many highly educated people, it will be very helpful to the society in general. Students are able to take lectures from professors who have a lot of experience and knowledge once they enter university. In addition, higher academic results are expected through the use of laboratories and libraries established in each university. As a result,
