Mr. Wheeler was carrying a pouch full of letters for the people of Dew town. Can you imagine who he was? Yes, he was a mailman, and he always wore a mailman's hat. He also had a whistle that he would blow at every stop. When the whistle blew, people would come out of their homes to see if there was mail in their boxes. But Mr. Wheeler didn't blow a whistle where Guffy lived. Guffy was a dog that loved to bark and bite. (a)■ Every day Mr. Wheeler would tiptoe up to the house where Guffy napped. He would put the mail in the box and try not to make any noise. But Guffy was a light sleeper and would easily wake up with a bark. Then he would chase Mr. Wheeler off the porch and down the block. Every day, rain or shine, Mr. Wheeler brought the mail to Dew town, and every day, Guffy would chase him.

One day, the wind was blowing very hard. Because of the wind, Mr. Wheeler's hat flew off his head and into the air like a kite. $\star His$ hat landed right on top of Guffy's dish! Guffy jumped up from a sound sleep, barking at the noise. Mr. Wheeler was sure that Guffy would chew his hat to shreds. He was so sad that he would be a mailman without a hat. But suddenly, he got a great idea. Guffy was waiting when Mr. Wheeler came to the porch. He had the mailman's hat in his mouth. Mr. Wheeler reached into his pouch. (b) \blacksquare What he pulled out was a dog biscuit. Guffy didn't shred the mailman's hat or bark at Mr. Wheeler. Instead, he dropped the hat at Mr. Wheeler's feet, sat quietly, and waited for his treat. Guffy was waiting and drooling. (c)

Since that day, Mr. Wheeler and Guffy have become good friends! Mr. Wheeler brought more than just mail to Dew town. He brought a biscuit for his friend. Guffy wagged $\star his$ tail whenever the mail whistle blew. (d)
