Paragraph Worksheet for Writing & Speaking

Paragraphs are groups of sentences that have a single idea. A paragraph typically includes:

Structure of a paragraph

- Topic Sentence
- Supporting Sentences
- Concluding Sentence

For example:

- My teacher is the best teacher.
- Her name is Samantha. We call her Sam. She is my English teacher. She is from Boston in the U.S. She plays with us all the time. She makes me laugh all the time.
- I like her class. She gives a stamp when we do a great job. She gives homework that is fun.
- This is why I like my English teacher.

- Topic Sentence: Write a sentence that states the main idea or topic of a paragraph.
- Supporting Sentence: Write facts or descriptions that relate to the topic.
- Concluding Sentence: Re-word the introduction to sum up the ideas in the paragraph to bring it to a close.

TOPIC: If you can see the future, what would you see?

Tip: - You can see the future, but only for five minutes.
How would you use this time?

- What would you like to see?
- What benefits can this opportunity bring to you?
- Why did you make such a decision?
- Would you regret it?

Sample:

- Topic Sentence: I would like to see the last five minutes of the first match of the Premier League.
- Supporting Sentences: I bet on the result of this match with my friends. We bet 10 dollars on this match. I said Liverpool would win, but I am not sure. So, I would like to check to see that Liverpool would win. If by any chance, they do not win, I would change the team. I don't think I will regret it.
- Concluding Sentences: This is why I want to see the last five minutes of the first Premier League match if given a chance.

Topic: If you can see the future, what would you see?

Direction - See the sample paragraph on the left page, rewrite it with your opinion
- Please record without a manuscript and then submit it to your teacher
