

Words To Learn This Week

UNIT

1

lease	sympathy	engage	liable	prospect hustle	paddock	committee	vain	compulsory feature	railway	adverse	bash	punctual inscribe	compulsory	forecast	infect	survey personality	appeal	participate	bare	cause lease (n)

a legal agreement that allows you to use a building sympathy (n)

understanding, and caring about the sadness or suffering of others

engage (v)

1. to take someone on as a worker
2. to take up someone's time liable (adj)

legally responsible for the cost of something prospect (n)

the possibility that something will happen

hustle (v)

to push or move somebody in a way that is not gentle paddock (n)

saddling enclosure at race track; a lot for exercising horses committee (n)

a special group elected to think about some matter ain (adj)	useless, failing to produce the result you want compulsory (adj)	that must be done by rules or regulation feature (v)	to show something as a important part of something railway (n)	the metal lines on which trains travel between one place and another adverse (adj)	making condition difficult for somebody or not good or favorable bash (v)	to strike or smash something punctual (adj)	happening at the right time; not late inscribe (v)	to write or cut words on something

compulsory (adj)	that must be done by rules or regulation forecast (v)	to say what will probably happen in the future infect (v)	to make a person sick with something that causes disease survey (n)	a study of the opinions, behavior, etc of a group of people personality (n)

the character or nature of a person appeal (v)

1. to make an urgent or formal request
2. to create a favorable impression participate (v)

to take part in an activity

bare (adj)

not covered by clothing or adornment

cause (n)

the thing that is responsible for something happening

Review Exercise

Write each of this lesson's words on the line after its meaning.

1. legally responsible for the cost of something _____
2. to strike or smash something _____
3. to show something as a important part of something _____

4. the thing that is responsible for something happening _____
5. the possibility that something will happen _____
6. a study of the opinions, behavior, etc of a group of people _____

7. that must be done by rules or regulation _____
8. understanding, and caring about the sadness or suffering of others

9. happening at the right time; not late _____
10. to write or cut words on something _____

11. the character or nature of a person _____
12. a special group elected to think about some matter _____
13. to make a person sick with something that causes disease _____
14. to say what will probably happen in the future _____

15. saddling enclosure at race track; a lot for exercising horses _____
16. making condition difficult for somebody or not good or favorable

17. to push or move somebody in a way that is not gentle _____

18. not covered by clothing or adornment _____
19. useless, failing to produce the result you want _____
20. to take part in an activity _____