

Words To Learn This Week

UNIT

1

instruct	cosmetic	exceed	hijack	ecology prove	liable	disciple	enforce	inject nonsense	reverse	elite	gap	revolting cease	worship	yield	introduction	maintain bustle	exploit	exploit	elderly	inner city instruct (v)

to tell somebody to do something cosmetic (n)

a substance that you put on your face or hair to make yourself look more attractive exceed (v)

to be more than a particular number or amount hijack (v)

to take control of a plane by force ecology (n)

the relationship between living things and their surroundings prove (v)

to use facts and evidence to show whether something is true liable (adj)

held legally responsible disciple (n)

a person who follows a teacher, especially a religious one; follower enforce (v)	to make something be done inject (v)	to insert liquid into someone's body by using a medical needle nonsense (n)	being ridiculous and not true reverse (v)	to put something in the opposite position to normal elite (n)	social group that is thought to be the best gap (n)	an empty space between two things revolting (adj)	causing a feeling of disgust cease (v)	to stop or end doing something worship (v)	to pray to and show respect for God yield (v)	to produce or provide crops, profits introduction (n)	1. the act of bringing in something new 2. the act of telling two or more people each others' names for the first time maintain (v)	to make something continue at the same level or standard bustle (n)

hurried, noisy and excited activity exploit (n)

brave or adventurous deed or action exploit (v)

1. to use especially for profit
2. to use selfishly for one's own ends elderly (adj)

advanced in years

inner city (n)

the poor parts of a large city, near the centre

Review Exercise

Write each of this lesson's words on the line after its meaning.

1. hurried, noisy and excited activity _____
2. to insert liquid into someone's body by using a medical needle _____
3. to be more than a particular number or amount _____

4. brave or adventurous deed or action _____
5. being ridiculous and not true _____
6. to take control of a plane by force _____

7. 1. to use especially for profit 2. to use selfishly for one's own ends

8. to put something in the opposite position to normal _____
9. the relationship between living things and their surroundings _____
10. advanced in years _____

11. social group that is thought to be the best _____
12. to use facts and evidence to show whether something is true _____
13. the poor parts of a large city, near the centre _____
14. an empty space between two things _____

15. held legally responsible _____
16. to pray to and show respect for God _____
17. to make something continue at the same level or standard _____

18. causing a feeling of disgust _____
19. to produce or provide crops, profits _____
20. a person who follows a teacher, especially a religious one; follower
