

Words To Learn This Week

UNIT

1

accuse	equipment	dweller	examine	range mention	obtain	criminal	attract	involved legend	detector	evolve	dialogue	enable settlement	employee	industrial	mayor	moderate customer	dash	order	attitude	abound accuse (v)

to say that somebody has done something wrong or broken the law

equipment (n)

things, tools or machines needed for a purpose or activity dweller (n)

a person or animal that lives in the place mentioned

examine (v)

to closely observe

range (n)

the limits within which amounts, ages etc fall

mention (v)

to say or write something about something obtain (v)

to get something that you want through hard working criminal (adj)

relating to crime or its punishment

attract (v)

to cause someone to pay attention to something

involved (adj)

1. difficult to understand; complicated
2. closely connected with something legend (n)

a story about mythical or supernatural events that is part true, part imagination

detector (n)

a machine that is used for finding something evolve (v)

to undergo an evolution dialogue (n)

a formal discussion between two groups or people enable (v)

to make able, to make possible

settlement (n)

an official agreement that ends an argument or problem

employee (n)

a person who works for someone

industrial (adj)

relating to or resulting from industry

mayor (n)

the mayor of a town or city is the person who has been elected to represent moderate (adj)

having neither too much nor too little of something customer (n)

a person who buys goods

dash (v)

to run or move very quickly

order (n)

the way in which people or things are arranged in sequence attitude (n)

the way that you think, feel or behave abound (v)

to be abundant or a lot of something

Review Exercise

Write each of this lesson's words on the line after its meaning.

1. the mayor of a town or city is the person who has been elected to represent _____
2. to make able, to make possible _____
3. the limits within which amounts, ages etc fall _____
4. to say that somebody has done something wrong or broken the law _____
5. a person who buys goods _____
6. a person who works for someone _____
7. to cause someone to pay attention to something _____
8. the way in which people or things are arranged in sequence _____
9. relating to crime or its punishment _____
10. an official agreement that ends an argument or problem _____
11. to run or move very quickly _____
12. to be abundant or a lot of something _____
13. to closely observe _____
14. to get something that you want through hard working _____
15. a formal discussion between two groups or people _____
16. relating to or resulting from industry _____
17. a story about mythical or supernatural events that is part true, part imagination _____
18. the way that you think, feel or behave _____
19. a person or animal that lives in the place mentioned _____
20. having neither too much nor too little of something _____