

Words To Learn This Week

UNIT

1

uncountable	coast	gasp	transportation	cheat elsewhere	imperfect	feature	forward	post naughty	handkerchief	blush	burst	lightning recommend	closet	concentrate	skip	accent pole	claim	edit	lap	rob uncountable (adj)

not able to be counted

coast (n)

the area of land that is next to a sea

gasp (v)

to take a sudden loud breath because you are surprised or in pain transportation (n)

the act of moving goods or people

cheat (v)

to trick someone who trusts you; to deceive someone elsewhere (adv)

in or to another place

imperfect (adj)

having faults; not perfect

feature (v)	to show something as an important part of something forward (adv)	in the direction that is in front of you post (n)	1. the system for collecting letters or packages 2. letters or packages that are collected naughty (adj)	badly-behaved; not obeying handkerchief (n)	a square piece of cloth used for clearing your nose blush (v)	to become red in the face because you feel guilty burst (v)	to break open suddenly and violently lightning (n)	a bright flash of light that appears in the sky during a storm recommend (v)	to advise someone to do something because it is good closet (n)	a small room used for storage space concentrate (v)	to give all your attention to something skip (v)

1. to move along quickly and lightly in a way that is similar to dancing, with little jumps,
2. to leave out

accent (n)

a particular way of pronouncing pole (n)

a long stick or post usually set upright in the ground to support something claim (v)

to say something as a fact edit (v)

to prepare a book by removing mistakes for publication

lap (v)

to make gentle sounds as it moves against something rob (v)

to take money or property from a person

Review Exercise

Write each of this lesson's words on the line after its meaning.

1. a particular way of pronouncing _____
2. the area of land that is next to a sea _____
3. a bright flash of light that appears in the sky during a storm _____

4. to say something as a fact _____
5. in or to another place _____
6. in the direction that is in front of you _____

7. to give all your attention to something _____
8. to take a sudden loud breath because you are surprised or in pain

9. not able to be counted _____
10. to break open suddenly and violently _____

11. a small room used for storage space _____
12. the act of moving goods or people _____
13. to take money or property from a person _____
14. to advise someone to do something because it is good _____

15. a square piece of cloth used for clearing your nose _____
16. to make gentle sounds as it moves against something _____
17. to trick someone who trusts you; to deceive someone _____

18. badly-behaved; not obeying _____
19. having faults; not perfect _____
20. to prepare a book by removing mistakes for publication _____