

Words To Learn This Week

UNIT

1

stick	suddenly	faint	strange	drove appear	beside	mist	dangerous	specially stare	curious	throw	possibly	explain beat	billion	bit	bite	reach innocent	cure	accept	record	report stick (n)

a thin branch which has fallen off a tree suddenly (adv)

something happens quickly and unexpectedly faint (v)

to lose consciousness for a short time strange (adj)

out of the ordinary or unusual or unexpected drove (v)

to operate a car or a vehicle to go somewhere appear (v)

to shows up or comes out; is seen visually beside (prep)

at the side of it or next to it mist (n)

tiny drops of water in the air dangerous (adj)	not safe or filled with danger specially (adv)	only for the particular person or purpose stare (v)	to look at someone for a long time curious (adj)	interested in something, having to know about it throw (v)	to move your hand or arm quickly and let go of the object possibly (adv)	not sure something may be true or likely explain (v)	to give or describe details about something beat (v)	to hit them very hard billion (n)	a thousand million bit (n)	a small amount of something bite (v)	to use your teeth to cut or crush reach (v)	to get to a point or a place; succeed in achieving it innocent (adj)

if someone is innocent, they are not guilty of a crime cure (n)

a cure for an illness or treatment that makes an illness go away accept (v)

to receive or take something that someone offers you record (v)

to keep or write information in a computer or note report (v)

to tell people's information about recent events to the police

Review Exercise

Write each of this lesson's words on the line after its meaning.

1. something happens quickly and unexpectedly _____
2. at the side of it or next to it _____
3. only for the particular person or purpose _____

4. to use your teeth to cut or crush _____
5. a cure for an illness or treatment that makes an illness go away _____
6. tiny drops of water in the air _____

7. to lose consciousness for a short time _____
8. out of the ordinary or unusual or unexpected _____
9. a thousand million _____
10. to move your hand or arm quickly and let go of the object _____

11. to get to a point or a place; succeed in achieving it _____
12. to keep or write information in a computer or note _____
13. to hit them very hard _____ 14. to look at someone for a long time _____

15. not safe or filled with danger _____
16. to operate a car or a vehicle to go somewhere _____
17. a thin branch which has fallen off a tree _____

18. to receive or take something that someone offers you _____
19. to tell people's information about recent events to the police _____
20. interested in something, having to know about it _____