

Words To Learn This Week

UNIT

1

receive	steal	expensive	scared	finally lend	wipe	reasonably	bend	develop distant	earn	initially	disease	east throat	accommodation	truthful	wound	position

receive (v)

to have something offered or delivered

steal (v)

to take the property of other's without permission or right secretly [They tried to steal our vegetables because they were very poor.]

expensive (adj)

involving high cost especially for buyers

scared (adj)

serving or intended to frighten people [If you're never scared or embarrassed or hurt, it means you never take any chances.]

finally (adv)

at the final point or moment; in the end [After three tries, he finally passed his driving test.]

lend (v)

to give something for temporary use [Can you lend me a one-dollar bill?]

wipe (v)

to rub or to clean or dry by rubbing something [She cried, and the judge wiped her tears with my checkbook.]

reasonably (adv)

sensible; rational; showing reason

bend (v)

to make or become angled or curved [Please keep bending your knees until your name called.]

develop (v)

to grow slowly or increase

distant (adj)

separated in space or time, so it takes long time to reach earn (v)

to gain money, wages, one's living by working [She earns a lot each month in her new job.]

initially (adv)

at first
[I had some doubts initially.]

disease (n)

an illness of the body in humans or animals

east (n)

the direction you look towards in order to see the sun rise throat (n)

the front part of your neck
[The attacker grabbed the man by the throat.]

accommodation (n)

a place for somebody to live or stay [Find accommodation by main Travel Attraction in Rome.]

truthful (adj)

telling the truth; honest, sincere [The advertisement is the most truthful part of a newspaper I think.]

wound (n)

an injury due to external violence
[Love is not always a bandage to cover wounds.]

position (n)

a place where someone or something is

Review Exercise

Write each of this lesson's words on the line after its meaning.

1. to give something for temporary use _____
2. to have something offered or delivered _____
3. to take the property of other's without permission or right secretly _____
4. to rub or to clean or dry by rubbing something _____
5. to gain money, wages, one's living by working _____
6. to grow slowly or increase _____
7. sensible; rational; showing reason _____
8. an illness of the body in humans or animals _____
9. a place where someone or something is _____
10. an injury due to external violence _____
11. telling the truth; honest, sincere _____
12. a place for somebody to live or stay _____
13. to make or become angled or curved _____
14. at first _____
15. involving high cost especially for buyers _____