

Words To Learn This Week

UNIT

1

forget	bear	crime	build	story early	ear	fast	cold	yellow dead	train	soil	decide	raise half	pass	ready	wonderful	first win	sleep	anger	only	spend forget (v)

to dismiss from the mind; cannot remember something bear (v)

to carry something or support its weight crime (n)

a bad act punishable by law; usually considered as an illegal action build (v)

to make something by putting pieces or materials together story (n)

a description of how an event happened early (adj)

before the usual time

ear (n)

the two parts of your body, with which you can hear sounds fast (adj)

moving or doing something at great speed cold (adj)	a very low temperature yellow (adj)	having the color like that of gold or the sun dead (adj)	no longer living train (n)	a number of carriages which are pulled by an engine along a railway soil (n)	to make something filthy or dirty decide (v)	to make a formal judgement about something raise (v)	to increase the level or amount of something half (n)	one of two equal parts of something pass (v)	to go through a place ready (adj)	prepared for immediate action or progress wonderful (adj)	very fine, excellent, makes one feel very happy first (adj)	coming before all others in order win (v)

to be the winner in a contest or competition sleep (v)

to rest with your eyes closed and your mind anger (n)

the strong feeling when someone has done something that you do not like only (adv)

being the single one or ones; no more than spend (v)

to use or devote somebody's time or energy

Review Exercise

Write each of this lesson's words on the line after its meaning.

1. being the single one or ones; no more than _____
2. coming before all others in order _____
3. before the usual time _____

4. to go through a place _____
5. a very low temperature _____
6. to use or devote somebody's time or energy _____

7. to increase the level or amount of something _____
8. having the color like that of gold or the sun _____
9. to carry something or support its weight _____
10. to be the winner in a contest or competition _____

11. to make something filthy or dirty _____ 12. one of two equal parts of something _____
13. to dismiss from the mind; cannot remember something _____
14. a description of how an event happened _____

15. to make a formal judgement about something _____ 16. very fine, excellent, makes one feel very happy _____
17. to rest with your eyes closed and your mind _____

18. moving or doing something at great speed _____
19. no longer living _____
20. prepared for immediate action or progress _____