Chapter 1

Pre-READING : Listen to the story and repeat it.

-  Long, long ago, a poor hunter lived near a forest with two children, Hansel and Gretel, and their stepmother.
-  One year, a drought hit and destroyed all the crops and trees, causing the people to starve.
-  The hunter began to worry, saying, “We haven’t eaten for days. Hansel and Gretel must be very hungry. What should we do?”
-  “Take the children into the forest early tomorrow and leave them there,” said the wife.
-  “We can’t abandon Hansel and Gretel to be eaten by wild animals!” responded the hunter.
-  “We are too poor. If we keep them, all of us will die!” said the wife. Eventually, the hunter agreed with his wife. Hansel overheard his parents’ conversation and told Gretel everything.
-  Gretel began to cry and Hansel said, “Stop crying, Gretel. I will think of a solution.” He got up and left the house through the back, and found stones shining like silver.
